GIN PAIRING

Beefeater

Beefeater, not just your standard gin. It is a great start to get on the G&T wagon. It dates back to the 1800s and is named after the guards at the tower of London. The London dry style, with its simple citrus flavour, is especially easy to drink alongside Schweppes tonic with an orange and lemon wheel.

Single & Tonic 4.90

Double up for only 7.00

Bombay Sapphire

Bombay Sapphire is a fairly new gin, only established since 1987, but its recipe dates back to 1761, so it is a great gin with a real pedigree. Its floral flavours complements ideally with Fever-Tree's elderflower tonic and a simple lime wedge, to give it that citrus kick.

Single & Fever-Tree

Elderflower Tonic 5.75

Hendrick's

Hendrick's is fast becoming the gin to have. This Scottish gin is very unusual compared to other gins as it has eleven peculiar botanicals, which include cucumber and rose petals. The use of the local Fentimans tonic and fresh cucumber really creates a refreshing taste and a delightful floral aroma.

Single & Fentimans Tonic 6.40

Durham Gin

Made with 10 botanicals this gin is soft and slightly floral on the nose with a mix of Juniper, Elderflower and Pink Peppercorns. Long and smooth on the finish. We begin by hand-crushing Juniper berries. These are added among other robust botanicals, including Angelica and Pink Peppercorn, which are placed within a mixture of locally sourced Durham spring water and pure grain spirit. A second infusion of botanicals is added followed by a third and final set of lighter, more delicate botanicals.

Single & Fentimans Tonic 6.50

Caorunn

Caorunn pronounced (KA-ROON) is our Bar Manager's favourite. Its main flavour is citrus, but it has a touch of apple and with a Fentimans tonic and a slice of apple, is in his opinion the perfect G&T. Do you agree?

Single & Fentimans Tonic 6.35

Aviation

Aviation, from the U.S.A. is a Dutch style gin, but is distilled from rye. Its floral profile comes from the juniper, lavender, Indian sarsaparilla and orange peel. Serve with Fever-Tree tonic and raspberries, makes it both fruity and floral.

Single & Fever-Tree Tonic 6.80

No.3

No.3 currently holds royal warrant for H.M. The Queen and H.R.H. The Prince of Wales. It is a simple London dry gin with six botanicals distilled in traditional copper pot stills. This gin combines extremely well with Fentimans traditional tonic, served simply with a classic lemon wheel. Highly recommended.

Single & Fentimans Tonic 6.85

KEHOUSE BAR

CARTER & FITCH – THE STORY

Carter, the eldest son of the Carter family, was brought up in NYC by his grocer father and his Italian mother, who famously sold her Italian Pizza's from their kitchen to make ends meet. Carter left school at a very young age to help his parents provide for their family of six. Carter took a job in a local smokehouse and learnt the trade quickly. Then the prohibition act came into play in New York and America. Capone and his men took over the smokehouse and now Carter was working for the mob. The smokehouse quickly became a front for Capone's Prohibition Empire.

Fitch, an orphan, was taken under Capone's wing and became one of the gangster's right-hand men. After many years on the streets and in and out of prison, Fitch learnt all the tricks of the bootleggers and was then promoted to the boss of the smokehouse.

Once Capone's arrest was made in the 1931, Carter and Fitch, who had now become firm friends, decided to skip the Big Apple and go straight, doing what they knew best.... opening a Speakeasy Bar-Smokehouse-Pizzeria.

Both lived within a stone's throw of each other, with their families in downtown Chicago, for the remaining years of their lives. Carter sadly passed away aged 83 years whilst asleep, Fitch soon after. Their families have continued the Carter and Fitch Empire - now we bring the original Smokehouse and Pizzeria to you.
